ATR VERDICT: GUNLOCK (second) won a maiden at Newcastle 20 days ago and, with the the promise of plenty more to come, this gelded son of Into Mischief is hard to ignore despite this being his debut run on turf. Both Eastvan and Cabrillo arrive on the back of long absences, so a bigger threat is posed by Gemstar (third), who was only half a length behind the selection when they met on the all-weather last month.

Top Tip: GUNLOCK (2)

Watch out for: GEMSTAR (5)

ATR VERDICT: MODERN TIMES took a step forward from his debut effort when a length second over a mile at Kempton in November and he is likely to have plenty more to offer. Harry Eustace's three-year-old makes his return to action and he could prove too good, with his main danger possibly being Approved Star, who ran with huge credit when he hit the frame on his debut at Kempton earlier in the month. Sardinian Warrior and Smart Hero aren't out of it either.

Long Handicap: Tenerife Sunshine 8 - 1

ATR VERDICT: PRYDWEN was quite taking when landing a big pot at Newcastle on Good Friday and a 6lb higher rating may not be enough to prevent the six-year-old from following up. The biggest threat may emerge from the progressive Pledgeofallegiance, who capped off last year's campaign with a victory at Ripon in September. Last month's Lingfield runner-up Diamond Bay should give another good account in retained cheekpieces.

Top Tip: PRYDWEN (1)

Watch out for: PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE (8)

9 (1)		11-	SHE'S A GAMBLER (IRE) 298 D b f Cotai Glory - Lady Ro	3 8 - 7	Cam Hardie R A Fahey	74

ATR VERDICT: A gelding operation seemed to do the trick for PIZ NAIR because he scored comfortably on his return at Lingfield earlier in the month, and a 3lb rise for that success could prove lenient as he goes up in class. Not seen in action since a determined victory at Thirsk last July, the unbeaten She's A Gambler is a key player, along with fellow handicap debutant Blue Day and the consistent Media Shooter.

Top Tip: PIZ NAIR (7)

11 (2)		4736-45	SHALAA ASKER 12 CD b g Shalaa - Miracle Seeker	6 8 - 6p	S De Sousa A Keatley	78

ATR VERDICT: Although Billboa warrants respect in his bid to land a four-timer, the gelded son of Brazen Beau may be worth taking on racing off a 5lb higher mark than last month's narrow Dundalk victory. Fellow last-time-out winner AL BAREZ was value for further than his Kempton victory having got there from an uncompromising position. Tom Clover's charge is taken to complete a double, with the in-form Intervention also likely to be involved.

Top Tip: AL BAREZ (6)

Watch out for: BILLBOA (9)
