ATR VERDICT: Now that the penny has dropped for FICTIONAL after a comfortable success at Kempton last month, the four-year-old should have plenty more to come as he steps up in distance on this occasion. The booking of Oisin Murphy catches the eye, and he may have too much for Smart Charger, who has strong claims on his penultimate victory at Yarmouth, while Asense is another with the potential to improve on the step up to 2m.

Top Tip: FICTIONAL (5)

ATR VERDICT: Turned out again quickly after breaking the maiden with a comfortable success at Chepstow recently, RED CLOUD is entitled to improve for going up in trip, and he can strike again for his in-form connections. That may be at the main expense of Dillydingdillydong, who has done well since joining new connections and ran well over shorter here last month. Piranheer and Top Flight Century are capable of being in the shake-up as well.

ATR VERDICT: This can go the way of SERAPH GABRIEL, who shaped with plenty of promise on debut at Newbury when outpaced mid-race before rallying late in the piece for fourth. The slight rise in distance is a plus and the son of Saxon Warrior is preferred to Hot Property, who ran a similar sort of race first time out at Hamilton over 6f. A well-bred son of Dubawi, newcomer Archivist must be monitored for market support.

ATR VERDICT: ALASHOS showed a big improvement when going agonisingly close at Brighton a fortnight ago. That looks the strongest form on offer, and he's taken to overcome a wide draw and come out best. Twilight Ballet placed over the minimum trip here on debut only to disappoint at Newmarket last week. It's too soon to write him off just yet, while Bluesy Moon is making steady progress without yet threatening to open her account. Silca Bay is related to a couple of winning sprinters and is a newcomer to keep an eye on.

ATR VERDICT: WARRIORS DREAM found his way blocked when launching a bid at Newbury on his handicap debut. He would likely have finished a lot closer than fifth with a clear passage and this looks a less competitive contest. Yellow Pages recorded his best effort in a handicap so far when narrowly beaten over the extended 7f at Ffos Las. He can figure again if proving as effective on this faster ground, while Ten Club, a winner over 6f in April, may prove best of the remainder returning to this longer trip.

ATR VERDICT: Wrestling Revenue was partnered by a 7lb claimer when scoring at Brighton last month. He's effectively racing off a 9lb higher mark, with a 2lb rise also taken into account, and that may well give the edge to BIRKENHEAD. The latter has gone close again since winning on soft going at Catterick in May, but he also has winning form on a fast surface, and Oisin Murphy's presence is another positive. The remainder make little appeal with Nordic Glory perhaps proving best of them.
