ATR VERDICT: Having landed a handicap hurdle at Ballinrobe off a mark of 126 when under the tutelage of Jessica Harrington in Ireland, stable debutant PIGEON HOUSE could prove classy enough to concede weight to this afternoon's rivals. Jennie Candlish's charge should put his experience to good use reverting to novice company and a third career victory could be in the offing. Fellow penalised winner Sayva receives 5lb from the selection and is feared most after his comfortable victory at Newcastle 41 days ago. Hurdles debutant Ocean Walz is the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Having justified heavy support in the market when opening his account over 2m at Fakenham last month, SECRET DES DIEUX looks to have been found a suitable opportunity to follow up. James Owen's charge ticks plenty of the right boxes and the son of Zarak boasts enough stamina in his pedigree to see out today's extended 2m3f distance. Hurdles debutant Guchen displayed enough ability on his fifth-placed bumper bow at Southwell to suggest that he can give the selection most to think about, ahead of fellow timber newcomer Tongaknoxie.

ATR VERDICT: The unexposed JOECOOKER put in some eye-catching late work when finishing a staying-on third over 2m4f at Carlisle last time out and a repeat of that effort may well suffice in this company. Point-to-point winner Caughtinyourtrance showed enough in his two bumper starts to suggest that he can get competitive in a race of this nature, though his lack of a recent run does temper enthusiasm slightly. Saint Malinas was also victorious between the flags and it will be interesting to see how he fares on his Rules debut.

Long Handicap: Newtonian 10 - 0

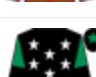

ATR VERDICT: The fitting of a visor enabled Grove Road to land victories at Newton Abbot and Huntingdon on his last two appearances and another bold bid is forecast. However, a 7lb higher mark for his latest triumph could be enough to thwart the eight-year-old's hat-trick bid and WEAVER'S ANSWER may offer more value. Tim Vaughan's charge is unexposed as a stayer and last month's reappearance sixth at Lingfield should have blown away any cobwebs. Pipers Cross has the form to feature as well.

ATR VERDICT: Finest View was well beaten into third on her chasing debut at Kempton last month, but she could get closer off a 2lb lower rating. However, it may pay to side with LIME DROP, who was victorious by over a length at Uttoxeter last time and is only 5lb higher for that triumph. Henry Daly's eight-year-old is a previous course winner and can complete a double. Beat Box is another to note if he can bounce back from his underwhelming fourth at Hexham last time.

ATR VERDICT: CULLIGRAN returned from a break to bolt up over track and trip last month and she was given a 7lb rise for that victory. John O'Shea's five-year-old has lots in her favour again and will prove very difficult to beat. Lady Caro was beaten 12 lengths into second in this grade at Fontwell last time and should go well off 1lb higher, while A Little Something is another to keep an eye on.

ATR VERDICT: JUST GOLDEN changed hands for 120,000 euros in June last year and the son of Flemensfirth is related to plenty of winners. With Dan Skelton's string in fine order at present, he gets the vote to make a winning debut. Doctor On Call is a half-brother to Martator and it would be no surprise to see him get involved on his first start, especially if the market speaks in his favour. Of the remainder, Getaway Sam makes the most appeal.

ATR VERDICT: Hippocratic Oath made it two out of two since switching to nurseries when scoring at Southwell last time and should mount a bold bid in his attempt to complete a hat-trick. However, a 7lb higher mark makes life tougher and, with that in mind, WILD NATURE gets the nod. Charlie Appleby's juvenile occupied the runner-up berth over track and trip last time and can strike off a 2lb higher rating with William Buick back in the plate. Master Technician is another to note.

ATR VERDICT: Those with experience don't appear to set a lofty standard so it might be worth taking a chance on JENUBIYAH. Her dam is an unraced sister to Oaks and King George winner Taghrooda and connections of this daughter of Too Darn Hot will be disappointed if she couldn't make her presence felt in a race like this first time up. This step up in trip should see the unexposed Jarham to better effect and he gets the vote to emerge as the main danger to the selection. Happy Banner is also noteworthy.

ATR VERDICT: This looks a tricky puzzle to solve so only a tentative vote goes to DARING FLIGHT. The 475,000gns gelded son of Dubawi represents a stable who are operating at a 30% strike rate at this venue this year and he gets the vote to score first time up. Kingman colt Exactly Right looks the main danger to the selection on paper and merits the utmost respect, particularly if the market speaks in his favour. Jolly Roger was far from disgraced when third over 6f at Newmarket last month and completes the shortlist now stepping up in trip.

ATR VERDICT: It is difficult to look past EYDON, who has been gradually brought back to somewhere near his best by the Andrew Balding team. The five-year-old is well clear of his rivals on ratings and stepping up to 1m4f looks like the perfect move following highly creditable efforts the last twice at Ayr and Newmarket. A taking winner over 1m3f here on her first start for new connections last month, Power Of Destiny could provide the chief threat to the selection, ahead of Champagne Prince.

ATR VERDICT: A winner of three of his last four starts over this C&D, including last time out when he had Sheradann (third) half a length behind, DUKE OF OXFORD looks the one to beat again off a career-high mark of 93. Fourth in the aforementioned contest, Cool Party had won on his two previous outings over C&D and he might give Michael Bell's charge the most to think about. A capable sort on his day, Tritonic is expected to be thereabouts as well.
