4 (3)			OURS DE SOLEIL b f Kodi Bear - Sunflower	2 9 - 0	C Lee K R Burke	-

ATR VERDICT: The betting will likely offer some clues to the chances of these newcomers, but Hugo Palmer boasts a good strike-rate at this venue and ARDISIA may prove good enough. The son of Ardad is related to three winners and is entered in a couple of big sales races later in the year. Dandy Speed is an early foal and his half-brother made a winning debut, while Filly Foden is another Ardad progeny and is preferred to Ours De Soleil.

ATR VERDICT: It is extremely hard to oppose LAND AFAR, who chased home a subsequent Grade 2 winner at Huntingdon two starts ago. The 10-year-old failed to fire at Leicester when last seen, but he should prove to be a cut above now eased significantly in grade. Kintaro's fourth in handicap company at Taunton suggests that he might be the main threat, ahead of Denzil.

ATR VERDICT: MOTAWAARED took a step forward when finishing runner-up at Southwell last month. Any further progress could make him hard to beat, with retained jockey Jim Crowley taking over the reins for his only ride at the meeting. Raulin ended last year with a promising third at Newcastle and he looks a threat, while Zowal is hard to assess on his placed efforts in France but should be noted debuting for new connections.

Long Handicap: Thunderstorm Katie 8 - 8

ATR VERDICT: RAMON DI LORIA justified favouritism by the smallest of margins over 6f at Wolverhampton last month and is only 3lb higher. Ewan Whillans' seven-year-old is a previous C&D winner and it would be no surprise to see him complete a double. Keep Me Stable hasn't finished out of the frame in each of her last three starts at Newcastle and should remain competitive. Falcon Nine is another to keep an eye on.

ATR VERDICT: SUPER SAINT appeared to have plenty in hand when winning on his handicap debut over 2m4f at Sedgefield last month and a 3lb rise may underestimate Paul Nicholls' gelding. Al Sayah racked up a double when last seen over obstacles in May and has to be noted on her return to action, while Broderick edges out Koukeo to be best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: A winner over C&D before, JAVA POINT bounced back to form with a strong runner-up effort at Sandown last time out and conditions should be in his favour once more as he looks to go one better. Narrowly denied at Warwick on his most recent outing, Destroytheevidence is entitled to be thereabouts again, as well as Annsam, who landed this contest in 2023 off 5lb higher.

ATR VERDICT: Dermot Weld saddled a double at Leopardstown on Sunday and could have the answer here with WILD SAPPHIRE. The son of No Nay Never kept good company on both outings in 7f maidens last autumn and finished strongly when a close third to Expanded at the Curragh. Broadstone showed promise on his only start in a Curragh maiden that has worked out quite well, while Gran Habano has plenty of experience and was placed a couple of times at Dundalk over the winter. Any market moves for newcomers Standard Deviation (by Invincible Spirit) or The Liffey Swim, who cost 110,000 pounds at a Breeze Up sale last spring, would be significant.

ATR VERDICT: D DAY ARVALENREEVA could not have done it any easier when scoring at Market Rasen last week and a 7lb penalty may not be enough to stop her from following up over slightly shorter. Lady Caro deservedly got off the mark with a determined performance at Plumpton last month, and she is a key player, along with Organic, who has yet to click for new connections but could be interesting on her handicap debut.

ATR VERDICT: NIBRAS RAINBOW won over a mile at Killarney last summer for Paul Flynn and has shaped well on a number of occasions since, including when placed in a 25-runner Curragh handicap. Colin Keane is a significant booking. Naisiun won on her reappearance over 7f at Naas last season and while far from consistent since, could go close off a similar rating, while Royal Pippen has dropped to what appears a competitive mark and is another to consider. Higher Kingdom won four times at Dundalk for John McConnell and it's probably best to put a line through his latest run after getting upset in the stalls.

That said, another career best is required and marginal preference is for BEST ADVENTURE. Andrew Balding's gelding showed plenty of ability as a juvenile and the son of Frankel should be capable of making his mark at this level. Others to note are West Tyrone and Everyoneknowsadave.

ATR VERDICT: Although keen, DOJIN opened her account with something in hand at Southwell last month and there should be more to come. An opening mark of 74 looks workable for the daughter of Iffraaj and she's fancied to follow up. Royale Goodnight will find this easier than the Listed Montrose at Newmarket in November last year and the Daniel & Claire Kubler-trained filly isn't taken lightly on the back of a wind procedure. Spirit Of Jura may fare best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: The hat-trick seeking Oriental Prince warrants respect after scoring over C&D and more recently at Newcastle. However, a 5lb penalty does demands another career-best performance from Jim Goldie's charge and preference is for EM JAY KAY. The six-year-old arrives on the back of a close-up third at Wolverhampton and he makes plenty of appeal racing off an unchanged mark. Fellow in-form rivals Safari Dream and Broken Spear are others of interest.

ATR VERDICT: The market should prove informative in a contest full of newcomers, with a tentative vote going to MUSEUM PIECE. The daughter of Showcasing is a sister to useful 5f winner Ganesha, and she could take some stopping if sharing the same ability. Shetakesthegold represents the Richard Hannon team, who have their string in fine fettle at present, and she warrants consideration, along with Social Exclusion and Diamond Alexander.

Long Handicap: Rampant 8 - 3

ATR VERDICT: Sant Alessio may have benefitted from setting a steady pace when beaten a neck into second at Wolverhampton last month, but that was still a respectable effort and he has to be considered. However, MARKET HOUSE looks the way to go. The five-year-old produced another good performance when hitting the woodwork over an extended 2m at Newcastle last time. This drop back in trip looks a good move and he can make it three wins out of six starts for the James Owen yard. Bunker Bay looks best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: BALGOWAN accounted for Fiftyshadesaresdev (third) when filling the runner-up spot over track and trip last month and that might be the key piece of form to focus on. Seamus Mullins' six-year-old goes off an unchanged rating and could gain his first career success. Fiftyshadesaresdev hasn't finished out of the top three since undergoing a wind operation and looks the main threat again, while Yakhabar is another to watch out for.
